Dear Vicki and Jim,

We had a busy week-end and Dad won the door prize at the Democratic cocktail party. It was Pres. Truman's book "Plain Speaking". I also was able to get the book on the transcripts. Dad was so anxious to start reading that he stayed home from work Monday and I am sure he read for twelve straight hours. His lunch consisted of a banana so he could still keep on reading.

It has been snowing in the mountains and as far down as Mt. Si, which is a little too close.

Our amusement room is full of baby things. Bassinets, cribs and baby buggies etc.

Tonight I am starting another class in yoga. Aunt Stella is going to take it also. The exercises are good and it is fun.

Little Charlie will be graduating from high school in June. It is really hard to believe. Marie will graduate next year and Gregg the following year.

Marie and Gregg are the same age for two months. Right now they are both 16.

Saturday night we are going over to Phyllis Gingers for dinner. It will be interesting to hear about George Tasso. Remember him Jim? His folks will be there as they have moved back to Bellevue to retire.

I am going out to mail this now
and I hope it works out for you to come here in June.

Love,
Mom.
